Seymour Street Methodist Church has a long history of community involvement and Damask is committed to developing this further by focusing on issues highlighted by the community.

◆ Befriending

In partnership with the Safe & Well Programme and Bryson Charitable Group we provide a befriending service for over 65's who would benefit from a regular weekly visit.

◆ Parent And Toddler Group

This group meets every Wednesday from 10am—12 noon (except July & August) and provides an opportunity for pre-school children and their carers to enjoy fun and friendship.

◆ Youth Outreach Programme

From Summer 2013 we will be developing our youth activities programme for young people in the community, which will include twice weekly after-school drop-ins and a weekly evening drop-in.

◆ Social Activities

In addition to our ongoing programmes and services we hold monthly tea dances and a monthly car boot sale as well as an annual Family Fun Day in June with free activities for all ages.
